SCOTT GARCEAU, 105.7 The Fan

Part of the Baltimore sports landscape since 1980, Scott has been honored seven times as State Sportscaster of the Year by the National Sportscasters and Sportswriters Association.

The original voice of the NFL's Baltimore Ravens radio network, Scott and former NFL star Tom Matte broadcast the teams first 10 years including Baltimore's Super Bowl XXXV win over the New York Giants. Scott was also part of Baltimore Orioles broadcasts for 13 years as pre-game host and play by play announcer.

Scott co-hosts an afternoon drive Sports talk show on CBS's 105.7 The Fan. The popular Scott Garceau Show can be heard Monday thru Friday afternoons from 3 to 6 on "The Fan."

A member of the Pro Football Hall of Fame Board of Selectors, he is one of 44 members that meet each year at the Super Bowl to select the Hall of Fame inductees.

JIM WEST, WBAL-AM

Jim West is a longtime Baltimorean who is the retired Sports Anchor for WBAL radio. West started his career by announcing Baltimore Clippers hockey in the 1960's.

He continued with the Chicago Blackhawks and Chicago Cubs and then with the Washington Capitals. His football play-by-play experience includes announcing for the University of Maryland from 1984 to 1986. From 1983 to 1989 West was half of the popular "Jones and West Morning Show."

He is a graduate of Baltimore Polytechnic High School and Towson University.

TED PATTERSON, WCBM 680 AM

A graduate of the University of Dayton, Ted came to Baltimore in 1973 as WBAL Radio's sports director, started its nightly sports call-in show and subsequently won the Maryland Broadcaster of the Year award three times.

Ted moved to WMAR-TV in 1979 as its nightly sports anchor and moved to WPOC as its sports director in 1982. From 1983 to 1996, Ted was the voice of Navy Football, in addition to his duties as the Navy Basketball play-by-play man. Recently, Ted retired from his position as the Sports Director of WCBM 680 AM and contributing reporter for ESPN Radio and AM 1370 FOX radio, to spend more time with his children and traveling throughout the country.

An avid sports memorabilia collector and historian, Ted has written five books, including the most recently completed text, "Golden Voices of Football."

THE GREATER BALTIMORE CHAPTER
NATIONAL FOOTBALL FOUNDATION
AND COLLEGE HALL OF FAME

Football has become the emotionally integrating force of the American school and college and, to no small degree, a unique training ground for leadership in our competitive society. The National Football Foundation and College Hall of Fame is a nationwide organization whose purposes include: the promotion of our American football game as an integral and vital part of our education processes; the encouragement of playing the game at all levels of competition — on the sandlots, in junior and senior high schools, and in colleges; and the establishment of the proper incentives and ideals for American youth consistent with high standards of sportsmanship among players. The College Football Hall of Fame honors those men who have excelled on the college playing field and contributed to society.

The Greater Baltimore Chapter is one of 120 chapters organized in the football centers of our nation. The Chapter held its first formal organized meeting on June 28, 1961. Through the efforts of such founders as Dr. George “Tank” McLaren, Harry Lawrence, John Donohue, Charley Havens, Dave Kaufman, Paul Menton, Don Kellet, Charles P. McCormick, Sr., and the Chapter’s first president, Howard “Dutch” Eyth, the foundation for the organization was formed.

Primary among its efforts, the Baltimore Chapter sponsors the annual Scholar Athlete Awards Dinner, which recognizes a scholar-athlete from each of the football-playing high schools in Baltimore City and the counties of Anne Arundel, Baltimore, Carroll, Frederick, Harford, and Howard and those who have made lifetime contributions to high school or college football. The first dinner was held in 1964 at the then Sheraton Belvedere Hotel under the chairmanship of Dr. R.D. “Bo” Menton, Jr. That year, 380 people attended the affair honoring 31 Scholar-Athletes. Through the years, more than 3,800 Scholar-Athletes have been honored and over 53,000 people have attended the dinner.

Scholarships awarded have amounted to more than $385,000. Over 900 people will attend tonight’s dinner where we will honor 79 outstanding young men. The budget for this year’s affair exceeds $75,000, in contrast to the original year’s budget of $3,500. The Chapter takes great pride in its dinner, which is the largest of more than 100 similar events held by Foundation chapters throughout the country. Our dinner is the only one that honors a Scholar-Athlete from each of the football-playing high schools in its chapter region.

Over the years, the Chapter has awarded more than 210 trophies to area high school and college football teams who have had significant achievement. The Service to Football Award is given in honor of Herb Armstrong, a founding chapter member and longtime president of the Maryland Scholastic Association. The Award is not an annual award, but rather is given to deserving individuals who have made a significant personal contribution and commitment to football in this area. Recipients include Herb Armstrong, Dave Kaufman, Harry Lawrence, John Donohue, Dutch Eyth, Charley Havens, Gardner Mallonee, Earl Banks, Ed Hargaden, Steve Hokuf, Ed Hurt, Bob Lumsden, Herb Ruby, Mason Russell, Dick Working, Mel Filler, Mitch Tullai, Jim Head, Reddy Finney, Ed Novak, Lloyd White, Toy Cragway, Augie Waibel, Joe Brune, Nick Schloeder, Andy Borland, Elmer Dize, Denny Cox, Bill Bauersfeld, Bob Patzwall, Doug DuVall and Roger Wrenn.

Upon request, our Chapter aids area schools and colleges with advice and counsel concerning their football programs. The Chapter is also a supporter of the Johns Hopkins Heart Hype program, the Baltimore Touchdown Club, and the National Football League Retired Players Association.

Individual memberships are $40 per year; applications may be obtained by contacting the Baltimore Chapter at (410) 668-6901 or by visiting our web site at www.footballfoundation.org.

A. Paul Menton Award

McDonogh Eagles

The Greater Baltimore Chapter of the National Football Foundation and College Football Hall of Fame annually presents the A. Paul Menton award to the top ranked Baltimore area football team. The award is named in honor of the late Paul Menton, the longtime sports editor for The Baltimore Evening Sun. Mr. Menton also served as the commissioner of game officials and was a founding member of the Greater Baltimore Chapter of the National Football Foundation.

This year's trophy goes to the McDonogh Eagles. The 11-0 Eagles won their first outright MIAA A conference championship with a decisive 37-6 win over arch rival Gilman School. In their first undefeated season since 2000, McDonogh rebounded from a trying 3-8 season in 2012. This championship was McDonogh's seventh, last earning co-championships of the MIAA-A Conference in 2006 and 2001, along with B Conference championships in 2000, 1999, 1998, and 1997. In 2013, the Eagles scored 401 points in 2013, yielding only 85.

Head Coach Dom D'Amico, in his 20th year at the helm of the McDonogh program, was the Baltimore Sun All Metro Coach of the Year and All State Co-Coach of the Year. McDonogh was the MaxPreps #2 ranked team in Maryland and the 48th ranked team in the MaxPreps U.S. Fab50. The Eagles were led by All State and All Metro Defensive Player of the Year Jr. MLB Wyatt Cook, and first team All State and All Metro Sr. OL Jared Cohen and Sr. DB Josh Woods. The second team All Metro squad included Sr. OL Ryan Ford and Jr. LB Connor Young. Jared Cohen will attend the University of North Carolina while Josh Woods is committed to attending the University of Maryland next fall.

Coach D'Amico's coaching staff included Tim Brandau, Mike Damico, Daren Ford, Spencer Folau, Tony Lott, Matt MacMullan, and Hakeem Sule.

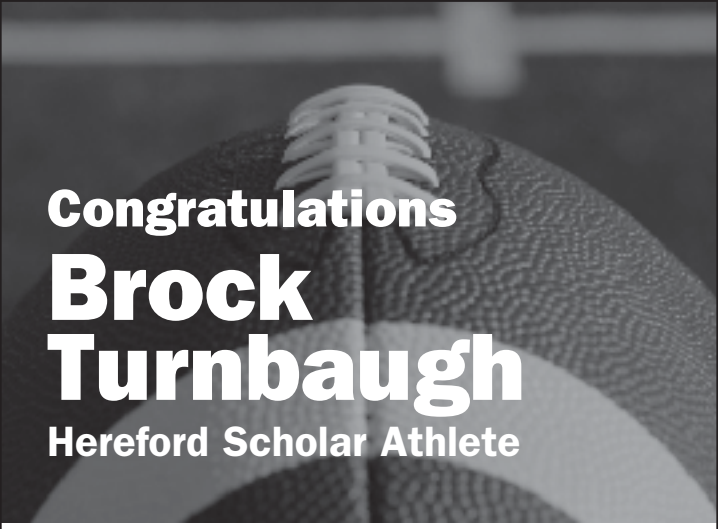

The Courage Award

For the fifth year, the Professional Athletes Foundation, through the local National Football League Former Players Chapter, is proud to partner with the Greater Baltimore Chapter of the National Football Foundation to present The Courage Award to a student athlete that has excelled both on and off the playing field while overcoming personal hardship during their young playing careers.

Tonight we will be presenting scholarships to a male and female athlete. Both athletes must be current student athletes and the male athlete must have played football during his senior year of school.

At a minimum, the candidates for The Courage Award must have a 3.0 GPA, must have participated in at least one varsity sport during their senior year, must plan to enter a two or four year university in the following calendar year. Nominees also cannot be recipients of any scholarship funds or grants to participate in college athletics and cannot be the son or daughter of a current or former NFL player.

Ben Eaton, Sr. Championship Awards

Numerous area high school programs enjoyed noteworthy success during the 2013 football season. Greater Baltimore Chapter teams participated in three state championship games at M&T Bank Stadium, capturing two of the titles, demonstrating a discernable high quality of competition and excellence in Maryland scholastic football teams.

For these achievements, the Greater Baltimore Chapter of the National Football Foundation will present Ben Eaton Sr. Championship Awards to these three schools. The awards were renamed in 2008 to honor the memory of the legendary Dunbar High School coach who died suddenly prior to the 2007 season. Recognized by his peers and the community, Coach Eaton set a standard for performance and conduct that inspires coaches to embrace their roles as counselor, mentor, leader and friend.

Franklin High School

Franklin High School of Baltimore County won the Class 3A state championship with a 20-7 win over Linganore High School of Frederick County in December at M&T Bank Stadium. The Maryland #5 ranked Indians completed the season with a ten game winning streak and 12-2 record. This was the second trip to the state finals in the last four years for Franklin and their third trip in school history. The Indians win was also Baltimore County's first Class 3A state title.

Franklin was led by All State QB Jacquez Adams, and All State and All Metro WR Steven Smothers, who made two touchdown catches in the championship game. The second team All State squad included OL Patrick Allen, and DB Jordan Adams. DL Luis Belmonte, LB Bruce Damon, DB Taurus Bruton and OL Evan Ostrow earned honorable mention All State honors.

Head Coach Anthony Burgos completed his 10th season at Franklin in 2013, having compiled a 79-39 record during his tenure.

Middletown High School

MaxPreps.com's third ranked Middletown High School Knights won their third consecutive state title in 2013 by beating Patuxent High School of Calvert County, 17-3, in the Class 2A State championship game at M&T Bank Stadium.

The 14-0 Knights also registered their 21st MVAL League championship, closing the season with a 36 game winning streak intact. The Black Knights' average margin of victory was 33 points in 2013, scoring 543 points and averaging 243 rushing yards per game.

Middletown was led by All State Defensive Player of the Year Rick Leonard, and Justin Falcinelli, a two-time, first team All State OL selection. Leonard has committed to attend Florida State next year, while Falcinelli is headed to Clemson University for his collegiate career. Fellow first team members include RB Brad Rinehart, DL Logan Casey, and K Nick Welch, along with second team All State members OL Ryan Crompton, OL Will McClain, LB Frankie Meighan and honorable mention QB Tim Pirrone.

Head Coach Kevin Lynott led the Knights, the top rank public school in Maryland, to their fourth straight appearance in the state finals. Their Monocacy Valley Athletic League championship was the Black Knights' fourth in a row, and 7th league title in the last nine years. Coach Lynott's staff included Assistant Head Coach Lorne Ridenour, Ryan Cutsail, Andy Baker, Joe Roth, and Roy Main.
