The original voice of the NFL's Baltimore Ravens radio network, Scott and former NFL star Tom Matte broadcast the teams first 10 years including Baltimore's Super Bowl XXXV win over the New York Giants. Scott was also part of Baltimore Orioles broadcasts for 13 years as pre-game host and play by play announcer.

Scott co-hosts an afternoon drive Sports talk show on CBS's 105.7 The Fan. The popular Scott Garceau Show can be heard Monday thru Friday afternoons from 3 to 6 on "The Fan."

From 1983 to 1996, Ted was the voice of Navy Football, in addition to his duties as the Navy Basketball play-by-play man. Recently, Ted retired from his position as the Sports Director of WCBM 680 AM and contributing reporter for ESPN Radio and AM 1370 FOX radio, to spend more time with his children and traveling throughout the country.

An avid sports memorabilia collector and historian, Ted has written five books, including the most recently completed text, "Golden Voices of Football."

THE GREATER BALTIMORE CHAPTER

NATIONAL FOOTBALL FOUNDATION AND COLLEGE HALL OF FAME

Football has become the emotionally integrating force of the American school and college and, to no small degree, a unique training ground for leadership in our competitive society. The National Football Foundation and College Hall of Fame is a nationwide organization whose purposes include: the promotion of our American football game as an integral and vital part of our education processes; the encouragement of playing the game at all levels of competition – on the sandlots, in junior and senior high schools, and in colleges; and the establishment of the proper incentives and ideals for American youth consistent with high standards of sportsmanship among players. The College Football Hall of Fame honors those men who have excelled on the college playing field and contributed to society.

The Greater Baltimore Chapter is one of 120 chapters across the U.S. The Chapter held its first formal organized meeting on June 28, 1961. Primary among its efforts, the Baltimore Chapter sponsors the annual Scholar Athlete Awards Dinner, which recognizes a scholar-athlete from each of the football-playing high schools in Anne Arundel, Baltimore, Carroll, Frederick, Harford, and Howard counties, and Baltimore City. The first dinner was held in 1964 at the then Sheraton Belvedere Hotel. Through the years, more than 3,700 Scholar-Athletes have been honored and over 54,000 people have attended the dinner.

Scholarships awarded have amounted to more than $425,000. Over 800 people will attend tonight's dinner where we will honor 69 outstanding young men. The budget for this year's affair exceeds $75,000, in contrast to the original year's budget of $3,500. The Chapter takes great pride in its dinner, which is the largest of more than 100 similar events held by Foundation chapters throughout the country. Our dinner is the only one that honors a Scholar-Athlete from each of the football-playing high schools in its chapter region.

Individual memberships are $40 per year; applications may be obtained by contacting the Baltimore Chapter at (410) 668-6901 or by visiting our web site at www.footballfoundation.org.

A. Paul Menton Award

Gilman Greyhounds

The Greater Baltimore Chapter of the National Football Foundation and College Hall of Fame annually presents the A. Paul Menton Award to the top ranked Baltimore area football team. The award is named in honor of the late A. Paul Menton, the long time sports editor for The Baltimore Evening Sun. Mr. Menton also served as the commissioner of game officials and was a founding member of the Greater Baltimore Chapter of the National Football Foundation.

This year's trophy goes to the Gilman Greyhounds. Head Coach Biff Poggi, in his 19th and final year at the helm of the program, was the #1 ranked team in the Maryland media poll, #2 in the Maryland MaxPreps poll and the 13th ranked team in the USA Today Super 25 poll. The 10-1 Greyhounds won the MIAA A Conference championship with a 35-28 win over the McDonogh School in their 100th meeting. It was the 13th MIAA title for the Greyhounds since 1995. The 2015 team averaged almost 40 points per game on offense, while holding its opponents to less than 13 points per game.

The Greyhounds were led by All State and All-Metro Defensive Player of the Year Ellison Jordan (Penn State) and All State and All Metro first team members OL Devery Hamilton (Michigan), OL Stephen Spanellis (Michigan) LB Taron Vincent and RB Antonio Dupree. Other All State teammates included LB Wes Mehl, WR Dorian Maddox, DB Corey Stevens, LB Stewart Keener, LB John Fitzgerald, P Alex Cohill, QB Kasim Hill and LB Shamar Shanks.

Poggi's ranks 14th on the list of Maryland's Active Coaches with a career record of 135-43. The MIAA A Conference championship was Poggi's 10th crown. Poggi announced his departure from his alma mater in late January, and will be succeeded on an interim basis by Athletic Director and former assistant coach Tim Holley.

Coach Poggi's coaching staff included Chris Baucia, Buzz Battaglia, Sherm Bristow, Sean Costello, Johnnie Foreman, Jeff Gouline, Keith Kormanik, Bill McGregor, Sam Poggi, Henry Russell, Marlon White, Stan White, and Troy Wilson.
